After his retirement Bob spent all his time with his LaVerne, except during Cranberry Harvesting time in Whitefish Pointe. At the end of the harvest, he would bring fresh cranberries home to LaVerne and she would bake up all his favorite recipes.

We were blessed to have Bob in our lives. He was a very generous man who would help anyone in need. Never asking for anything in return. He loved spending time with family. His great-grandchildren adored their "Papa Bob" He will be greatly missed by his amazing caregiver Pam(granddaughter) She filled his days with wonderful memories, challenges, and fun.
