“ I intervened when he beat up his girlfriend. He made himself dead weight during his tantrum and tore my bicep. I had to have surgery and now live with a deformed arm.

You intervened on a call that was from my ma about my dad just being intoxicated he was never once beating nobody!! I just looked into your records if you would like those to get posted to show the “not so man” YOU ARE!!! For you to be on this years later and to come on MY DADS obituary is DISGUSTING!!! that showed me all I need to know that YOU WONT be nothing in life👊 Have a good rest of your life like that too!!!✅

What exactly was your goal with this comment, especially being a police officer Jeff. I'm sure you have encountered worse than a call about an intoxicated man. Please don't bring your negative energy towards my family, does your family know about your record of suspensions? Please look into a mirror. Everyone makes mistakes but to come on our father's obituary is just plain disrespectful. Keep it to yourself.
