

Rodney Dale Sabisch

November 1, 1961 - October 3, 2023

Rodney Dale Sabisch, age 61, of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, died at home on October 3, 2023. He was born in Sault Ste. Marie, on November 1, 1961, to Ivan Lyle and Sandra Jean (Pesenski) Sabisch.

Rodney grew up in Sault Ste. Marie and graduated from Sault High School with the class of 1979. After graduating, he moved to Minnesota and worked at a machine shop before returning to Sault Ste. Marie in 1980. He began working as a conductor for the railroad. In 1985, he moved to Chicago, Illinois, for a few years before returning to Sault Ste. Marie in 1990, all while following the railroad for the next 35 years, until retirement. He also lived in Manistique, Michigan, for twelve years, before permanently moving back to Sault Ste. Marie in 2005.

Rodney played hockey in high school, winning a State Championship with the Coca-Cola League. He also loved that he played on the same ice with Wayne Gretzky.

Rodney loved spending time outside. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, and gardening. He was an avid model train set collector, and he loved spending time with his sons.

Rodney is survived by his sons, Travis Sabisch of Sault Ste. Marie and Steven (Emily) Sabisch of Sault Ste. Marie; grandchild, Nora Sabisch; and brother, Aaron (Julie) Sabisch of Sault Ste. Marie.

Rodney was preceded in death by his parents, Ivan and Sandra; and brother, Paul Sabisch.
