

Ruby J. Freeland

July 8, 1929 - October 1, 2013

Ruby Jean Freeland, age 84, passed into the arms of her Lord on Tuesday, October 1, 2013. She was preceded in death by parents, Art and Georgia Freeland. She leaves behind her loving husband, Archie, who she walked hand in hand with for 65 years. Also surviving is daughter Carol (Pat) Topij from Sugar Island, Michigan,; Sisters Mary from Kentucky and Victoria from Colorado; Grand Children John Henry Hafendorfer from Pelican, Alaska, Cheryn Sanford from Sault, Michigan, and Michael Hafendorfer from Portland Tennessee; Great-Grandchildren Caree Hough, Stacey Hough, Elizabeth Hafendorfer, Quintin Hafendorfer, Trevor Hafendorfer, Jacob Hafendorfer, Jordan Sanford, and Rylee Hafendorfer; and Great-Great Grandchildren Ryan and Brayden, many friends, and her church family at St. Luke's Community Church, on Sugar Island. Ruby loved to hunt, watch and feed the birds, and spend time with her husband, friends, and family. She drove school bus for the Walled Lake and Sault Ste. Marie Public schools for 13 1/2 years and moved to Sugar Island in 1978 to become part owner/operator of "Freelands Full View Resort" for 18 years. During the course of the resorts operation, Ruby touched the lives of so many friends and families. She was a crucial part of the establishment and construction of St. Luke's Community church located on the southern part of Sugar Island. A memorial service will be held at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to The Hospice House of the EUP, 308 W. 12th Ave., Sault Ste. Marie, MI 49783 or St. Luke's Community Church, 10422 E. Bradshaw Ln., Sault Ste. Marie, MI 49783.
