“ I wish to express my condolences.

Ruth and I attended Soo Township school together on Pine Street starting in 1955-56 when we were in the 5th grade. I am not sure when she moved to Ohio, but I remember that she lived on 6-mile Road about 2 miles east of our farm. For years now when I drive by the site I would wonder where she had moved and what she might be doing as the house soon fell in and there isn't much left there. I was suprised to read that she has lived in the Sault area for a number of years and worked at DHS until 1987. I worked for the Soo Schools from 1973-1999 and we may even have crossed paths and didn't realize who the other was.

I remember Ruth as a very nice kid who treated me well when I moved to the country and started at Soo Township School.

I wish I had gotten reaquainted with her as it appears she was a wonderful wife and mother/grandmother/greatgrand mother.

Again I want to express my sympathies for your loss.
