906/632-7521 Ph: 906/632-8221 OBITUARY Ruth Anna Savoie, age 91, of

Sault Ste Marie, MI went to be with Our Lord, her husband and departed members of her family at 6:30 am on Friday June 12, 2009. She was lovingly cared for at home by her family until her death. She was born on May 3, 1918 in Ewen Mi, the daughter of Arthur and Elizabeth DeMolen. Ruth graduated from St Mary's School of Nursing, Sault Ste Marie, Ontario. She was a World War 11 veteran, serving as a 1st lieutenant Nurse Corps Flight RN. Ruth enjoyed a long career at War Memorial Hospital retiring in 1981 as an OB

handmade items. Ruth was a D.A.V. lifetime member. She was a devout Catholic and longtime member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church. Her strong faith was a wonderful influence on her whole family. Ruth was the heart of her family and was devoted to all of them. She enjoyed knitting, crocheting, sewing, reading mysteries and bird watching. She loved outdoor activities including camping, snowmobiling, fishing, and hiking. She especially enjoyed going to deer camp with her husband, 3 sons and family friends. Ruth was a member of the Dosie-Do square dance club, and enjoyed many years of kicking up her heels with her husband. Ruth loved to travel and took many family trips and excursions. She was as happy sitting beside a campground fire roasting marshmallows as she was sitting in an opera house in Europe. Ruth is survived by three sons, Raymond (Nancy) Savoie of Dafter, MI, James (Helen) Savoie of Caro MI, John Savoie of Sault Ste Marie, MI; two daughters, April (Gil) McDonald of Sault Ste Marie, Terry (Bob) Kearns of Elgin IL; fourteen grandchildren, Stacey Savoie, Rhonda Savoie, Jennifer McDonald, Julie McDonald, Keith (Lydia) McDonald, Erin McDonald, Keven (Stephanie) Savoie, Tiffany Savoie (fiancAC.
