Samuel Paul Green, age 50, of Goetzville, Michigan, died on March 19, 2019 at his home. He was born on August 3, 1968 on Mackinac Island, Michigan, to Allen Roy Pauline Carol (Cadotte) Green.

Sam was a painter all of his life and was in business with his brother for many years. He worked mostly on Mackinac Island and in retirement worked at the Stone House on Drummond Island, Michigan. He was born and raised on Mackinac Island. As an adult he lived in St. Ignace, Michigan for a several years before moving to Goetzville eight years ago. He was one of six siblings and was loved by many. He would always point out all the beautiful homes and business that they worked on. He enjoyed moving to the country where life was calm and happy. Now that his fight with cancer is over he is free to fly home.

Sam lived his life and was happy the he helped us all in one way or another. □

Sam enjoyed hunting, fishing, creating willow chairs, bike riding, mushroom picking, camping, going to the beach, carving Decoy's for ice fishing, cooking, playing horse shoes, painting, and being handy to fix things around the house. He loved his dogs and family get togethers. Music was also a favorite, they brought him great comfort.

Sam is survived by his sisters, Christine M. Sutter and Lois Green both of Goetzville; brother, Dan Green of Watersmeet, Michigan; brother-in-law, David Sayles of St. Ignace; and very many nieces and nephews.
