

Sandra Lee Culter

March 15, 1954 - January 27, 2022

Sandra Lee (Hoffman) Culter, age 67, of Goetzville, Michigan, passed away on January 27, 2022, in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan after a long battle with cancer. She was born on March 15, 1954, in Detroit, Michigan, to parents Arthur L and Gladys J (Richardson) Hoffman.

Sandra spent her youth in Dearborn Heights where she graduated from Annapolis High School in 1972. As a young adult, she packed up and moved to California in 1977 where she found a career in managing receivable accounts. She moved back to Michigan for a short time and did some EMT work for Taylor Ambulance Service before settling in Colorado. She fell in love with the state and made it her home for many years.

Sandra was a huge lover of all things Colorado; she absolutely loved Denver and the local community and bands it offered. She was a huge fan of John Denver.

Sandra is survived by her sister, Mary (Jeffery) Marlatt of Goetzville; nieces and nephews, Michael Marlatt of Salt Lake City, Utah and Cindy Marlatt of Morrison, Colorado; great nieces and nephews, Max Marlatt and Kinley Bryant; good friends, Joanne and Gary along with many other friends and family who loved Sandra dearly.

Sandra is preceded in death by her parents and many other beloved friends and family who went before her.

Many thanks to the Hospice House and staff in Soo, Michigan.

Galer Funeral Homes & Cremation in Pickford, Michigan is serving the family. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.galerfuneralhomes.com.

“ I worked with Sandy for a few years in Colorado. She had a great sense of humor, loved her Irish music, and had a strength and confidence I admired. I'm very blessed she was my friend and I will always remember times and conversations we had with a smile. She truly was one of my favorite people. RIP 📖💔
