“ After just leaving Scott's funeral . I can't help but feel the emotions of losing such a great friend . Every Eagles game Scott came down from his booth to get the line ups for that nights game from me . So many great conversations. He was a wealth of sports knowledge. His insights on all sports. Which is what we talked about most. And of course Our children was always a topic of conversation also. My daughter Taylor babysat Vance n Liam when they were younger so following them as they grew became a mainstay of conversation. Scott will be truly missed by so so many people. With me being one of them . Rest In Peace my friend and may God hold you in his loving arms until we meet again .

“ To the Nason Families. My heartfelt condolences to you at this time. I first met Scott working side by side with him doing Eagles hockey. We had a very harmonious working relationship: having fun, feeding off each other, quoting Seinfeld T.V. episodes, enjoying our broadcasts. We were a team. Through those years I got acquainted with the boys, Vance and Liam. They were a constant in the Press Box. Later Becky joined us. It all ended too soon. I miss you Scott. It was a fun filled twelve years. Rest In Peace My Friend.

“ I worked with Scott at the radio station and also when I was working for the Soo Eagles organization, before I moved away in 2009. Scott was one of those guys that made you feel at home and one of the gang. He could make you laugh and enjoyed knowing him and working with him. My thoughts and prayers are with you all through this difficult time.

“ I grew up listening to Scott on the radio. When I met him at work, I felt like I met a celebrity. The nicest and most down to earth guy, he had an instantly recognizable voice and a dynamic personality. He was a wealth of knowledge, had a working relationship with just about everyone in the community and knew all the resources available for folks we worked with. Scott always had a smile on his face that was contagious. That smile and the impact he made on those he worked with will be forever remembered. My deepest condolences to his family.

“ Scott, my close friend, mentor and fellow Co-Host of The Game Sports Show.

You will be dearly missed, you will always be in my thoughts. You made me into a better person, truly the definition of what a warm hearted and kind person is. Together, you and I built something that entertains and for that I will always have you with me. Not a day will go by that I don't think about you, or want to text you about our show, an article or a sports moment, or even just to talk. I am truly thankful to have had such an amazing friend and human being in my life.

The strong and close friendship we built together will always be the true standard of what friendship should be.

I can say endless amounts but I want you to know that I love you brother and I will miss you extremely.

“ Praying for Scott's family at this time. Scott spoke often about the love he had for his wife and children. He was so proud of all his wife's accomplishments and loved to share stories and pictures of their vacations and time spent together. Scott expressed to me many times working together, that "Family comes first" and was always supportive of anything I needed to handle when it came to my children or husband. Scott's love for his boys was boundless. They were his world and he looked forward to the time spent with them. Clubhouse members will always remember Scott for his love sports and karaoke and for adding that special light to our lives.
