

Sheila Lynn (Burnham) Drenten

August 7, 1944 - May 12, 2020

Sheila Lynn (Burnham) Drenten, 75, passed away in her home on May 12, 2020 under the care of Schoolcraft Home Care / Hospice and family members.

She was preceded in death by her parents Charles and Velma Burnham and is survived by her husband of 50 years James (Jim) W. Drenten, sister Terri Rogers of Greenville, MI, brother Doug Burnham of Cedar Springs, MI, and several nieces and nephews. Sheila was born August 7, 1944 at Kelsey Memorial Hospital in Lakeview, MI.

She attended school in Grand Rapids, MI and graduated in 1962 from Creston High school. She went to work at Butterworth hospital after graduating where she trained and received certification as an X-Ray Technician. She worked at a few of the local hospitals and in 1970 married. In 1971 they moved to Gould City in Michigan's Upper Peninsula where as a child she had frequently visited her Grandparents and acquired her love for the U.P.

Sheila enjoyed all sports in her life and played softball with the JT Dancers for a few seasons. She loved snowmobiling, fishing, and cutting grass in the local communities, especially cutting the Newton Township Cemetery where many of her relatives were laid to rest. She loved her U.P. and having all of her family come to visit her. She will be greatly missed by all.

Per Request, Cremation has been accorded and private service will be attended by family members. Clark Funeral Cremation Burial Services assisted the family with arrangements.

“ Thinking of you Jim(my) in the passing of your wife, Sheila. In the years of living next door to your Dad in Rockford, we always heard such great stories about your life in the UP! Then the year we stopped by, it was a joy to see you and meet Sheila. Take care and may the good memories sustain you!

Your friends, John Walters and Mary Lou Ohnsman
