“ Sheila was my sister, we were estranged for quite awhile, but I did have some real fond memories of our growing up! She was quite a funny person, we had so many laughs I'll never forget!! She had so many friends!! She was very troubled in her life, and she wasted what could have been a wonderful career. Many people didn't realize she was a hairdresser, Barber, and a Social Worker! She loved children and helped in any way to encourage them to read. I did Love her, but didn't understand her! I know she'll rest in peace now and be with Mom and Dad. I know she wasn't all bad, just troubled! Rest in peace Sheila May, love , your sister, Cheryl Ann
