“ It is with great sorrow that we learned of the death of Suesan on Saturday. Although we have not lived in the Soo for many years, upon my (Stephanie) last visit there in 2006 shortly after my mother died, Susie invited me over to her home to meet her family and have an outdoor BBQ with great warmth and hospitality extended to me. It was wonderful to see everyone including Janis after so many years. We will pray that Jesus comforts your family and that the pain of the present will become the wonderful memories of Susie in the future. She was so young to leave this life for her new home, her eternal home with the Lord Jesus Christ, and she will surely never be replaced in the hearts of those who love her. John 3:16 assures every Christian of eternal life, though the pain of your loss is great. We pray for your comfort and hope. We are glad that you had such a loving wife, sister, friend, mother and inspiration to share in your lives, although it is never long enough. God bless you all.
