Susan M. Poglese, age 82, formerly of Hessel, Michigan died on July 2, 2014 in Redford, Michigan. She was born on December 1, 1931 in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan to Carl Anthony and Eleanor (Scarfone) Poglese. Susie and her four younger sisters grew up on a farm on Poglese Road in Hessel. For many of those years, the farm had no electricity and light was provided by gas and kerosene lanterns. She graduated from Cedarville High School in 1951. Susie moved to the Detroit area and stayed with her Aunt Julia. She initially worked in her aunt's store but soon started working for Bower Roller Bearing Company, where she worked for twenty years. When the company moved out of Michigan, she went to work for Safety Belt Company where she worked until she retired in 1994. Susie was a very sweet and kind-hearted person and her favorite thing to do was help others. She spent most of her vacation time in Hessel with her parents and she purchased many conveniences for them to make their lives easier as they aged. Over the course of the years and through her own battle with cancer, Susie volunteered with Hospice and helped family and friends whenever she could. Helping people was her favorite activity.

Susie is survived by two sisters, Rosie Fisher of Mishawaka, Indiana and Joan (Ray) Hansen of Hessel; twelve nieces and nephews; and many great nieces and nephews. Susie was preceded in death by two of her sisters, Mary Warner and Carmina Esson.

Services will be held on Friday, July 11, 2014 at Our Lady of the Snows Catholic Church in Hessel. Visitation will be held from 11:00 A.M. until 1:00 P.M. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 1:00 P.M. with Father Janusz Romanek celebrant. Burial will be at Oaklawn Chapel Gardens in Bruce Township, Michigan.
