“ Roy and Jane,
I don't even know how to express my sadness to you. Tracy will surely light up heaven with her laughter and beautiful smiles. I seldom get back to the Soo anymore and Tracy and I had talked about getting together...sadly we didn't make it. We did have such good times together and I am grateful and proud to have had her for my friend. Tracy will remain in my heart always. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. I'll miss you, Tracy.....with love Kay

“ Dear Jane, Roy and family,

We wanted to share our condolences and sorrow for the passing of Tracy, our friend.

Through many phone calls and most recently, tearful conversations, we have talked about how Tracey enriched our lives with her vitality, exburance and courage. Somehow it just doesn't seem possible that the world will be without her.

Please know that you are in all of our thoughts, hearts and prayers, not just at this time but for the many years ahead.

*All of our love,
Lisa, Blaine & Ron*

“ Jane & Roy:

I was just thinking of Tracy last week. I remembered us hanging around in high school and cruising Ashmun in your tan Ford Torino (with the faux fur steering wheel cover, which we teased her about to no end). We laughed a lot and had a blast.

May the memories of Tracy help you through this.

God bless you,

“ My deepest sympathy to Tracy's family.

I had the privilege of working with Tracy during her employment at the IBA. She was a lovely, kind person full of cheer. We shared some fun and laughs. She always wore a beautiful smile. When we saw each other last year we talked about getting together for a cup of tea and catch up talk. I must say with much regret, we never shared that cup of tea.

*God Bless,
