“ I am so sorry for your loss. I knew Trinda because she lived next door to Barb Amyotte. As kids, we all grew up together. As I drove by the house last week I wondered how everyone was doing.

“ The memories flood back of days spent at the Pontus home and Sherman Park. I was a classmate of Mellolee's at Loretta and knew all of the sisters. Each one smart, funny and sweet. Trinda always had a smile and a big hello. She treated me like a little sister. I send my prayers to the family and hope you find comfort in the love you share. Trinda and all of you will be in my thoughts and prayers. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I wish to express my deepest regrets at hearing of the loss of your sister, Trinda. Although we were classmates at St. Joes. elementary and Loretto High School, we were also related through marriage and got to know her sisters and Josephine and Frank. My sympathies and prayers are with you.
