“ I first met Trisha at Michigan State during her first year. We became friends and kept in touch over the years through the good times and bad times. There are so many good memories that we have shared together. She will be a part of my heart forever. You are at peace now in the arms of your mom and dad. My prayers for Kiersten. Be strong- you will get through this.
Your mother loved you more than anything. I hope that you look me up someday so I can share some of these happy memories with you.

“ I met you in Charleston SC, we worked together and hung out together, and we became close friends. I will never forget you Trisha. We had some great times, Kyle and Kiersten were toddlers when they met.
Kiersten has grown to be so beautiful just like her mom. I am so thankful that we were able to reconnect when you visited Charleston just recently. You will truly be missed. My prayers are for Kiersten and your family, may God lead them and help them through this difficult time. Love you my friend ❤️
