

Truman Stephenson

August 7, 1939 - April 27, 2014

Truman E. Stephenson, age 74, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., passed away Sunday April 27, 2014 at the Hospice House of EUP. He was born on August 7, 1939 in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. In earlier years Truman worked at Pontiac Motors; when he returned to the area he worked as a Merchant Seaman sailing the Great Lakes on numerous ships, including the Edmund Fitzgerald. Truman touched many people in one way or another throughout his life and he was known for ability to make people laugh. He enjoyed going to the Casino, watching Tiger's baseball, playing cribbage, and listening to country music. Truman also liked to cook and according to his family he was one of the best cooks in the area. Truman is survived by his wife, Sylvia Stephenson of Sault Ste. Marie; step-daughter, Tracy Shannon of Sault Ste. Marie; grandson, Ronald Shannon of Sarasota, Florida. He is also survived by his sister, Marge (John) Doyle of Sault Ste. Marie; niece, Jill Ball (special friend Jim) of New Smyrna Beach, Florida; nephew, Rick (Janet) Bennett of Sault Ste. Marie; great niece, Katie Bennett (special friend Jay) of Sault Ste. Marie; and two great great nephews, Damein and Raul. Truman was preceded in death by his parents, James and Vera Stephenson, and his brother, Clayton Stephenson. The family would like to offer special thanks to the EUP Home Health & Hospice, a service of Chippewa County Health Department. At the request of Truman there will be no funeral services.
