“ My memories of Mrs. Piche would be from when I was in high school, which would make her younger than my children are now. She worked hard and had a lot of responsibilities raising two boys. When we talked, she was always in a good mood, asking what we had been up to, to which Mike would tell her with complete honesty what we had been doing. This wasn't always good, however she would say "Michael John, you wouldn't do that". She was always 100% behind her boys, doing the best for them.

The picture of her is much older now, but the kindness was always in her face.

So sorry. Mark Sundstrom & Family
