

Victor David Farley Jr.

June 7, 1961 - November 25, 2024

Victor David Farley Jr., age 63, of Kincheloe, Michigan, died on Monday, November 25, 2024. He was born on June 7, 1961, in Dayton, Ohio, to Victor and Rosemary (Comer) Farley.

Victor was born and raised in Dayton before moving to the Upper Peninsula of Michigan to help his dad commercial fish. During this time, he obtained his Captains license and commercial fished for 20 years in DeTour, Michigan. He met Terry Curtis and they married on November 3, 2014. He had 7 children of his own but was a father figure to many of his sons, Jacob and Jessy's, friends. If he wasn't fixing something the kids broke, he was remodeling cars or building go carts. He loved being outdoors, it didn't matter if he was racing, fishing, or jet skiing. He worked for AMI Industries in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, for the last fourteen years. This is where he also met his best friend Steve.

Victor is survived by his wife, Terry; children, Jacob Farley, Jessy Farley, Dylan Farley, Victor Farley III, and McKenzie Farley, all of Kincheloe, and Rosey Farley and Sunny Farley both of Escanaba, Michigan; granddaughter, Ava Farley; and siblings, Kenny Farley of Dayton, Jeanette Farley of Dayton, Victoria Farley of Las Cruis, New Mexico, and Steve Farley.
