

Vivian Delores Young

January 18, 1928 - September 7, 2019

Vivian Cryderman Young, 91, of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, died on September 7, 2019. She was born on January 18th, 1928 in Sault Ste. Marie, to the late Forrest and Marion (Woodgate) Cryderman. She lived in the Soo until 1965 when she moved to Williamstown WV. She returned to the Soo in 2010, after the death of her husband, to live out her remaining years near family.

At a young age, Vivian met a friend of her brothers, Jim Young, with whom she would have a lifelong romance. They married on June 28th, 1946 in Sault Ste. Marie after he returned from military service and they raised five children. Vivian was an expert seamstress, a trained beautician, a wonderful painter and had a lifelong love for music and dancing. She was a fantastic baker, a student of geography and history, and she loved to travel, especially when it included visiting her grandkids. She volunteered with many organizations including Woman's Club and was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian Church. She had a weakness for German pizza and her life's mantra came from an inscription a teacher wrote in her senior yearbook "give the world your very best and you will find true happiness." She was a loving and caring wife, mother and person and a cherished blessing to her family. She and Jim are dancing together again and cutting quite a rug in Heaven.

Vivian is survived by her children, Diane (Roy) Montgomery of Henderson, Kentucky, Marcia (Tom) Mitchell of Sault Ste. Marie, Gail (Michael) Falk of Jenison, Michigan, Terry (Barbara) Young of Chalfont, Pennsylvania, and Lori

(Jon) McVay of Anchorage, Alaska; thirteen grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren.

Vivian was preceded in death by her husband, Jim Young; brothers, Melvin Cryderman, Newton Cryderman, and Gerald Cryderman; sisters, Marion Passmore and Leona Cryderman.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.
