

Patricia \"Patsy\" Gustafson

July 2, 2017

Patricia "Patsy" Gustafson, 62 of Brevort passed away early Sunday morning, July 2 at Mackinac Straits Hospital ER after suffering a heart attack at home. She was born February 13, 1955 in St. Ignace to William and Anna (Schlehuber) Bentgen. She was a graduate of LaSalle High School, and married Richard Gustafson in 1988 under the Cut River Bridge. She retired from Mackinac Straits Hospital after over 20 years service. Patsy loved to Quilt and made great candles. She also helped build the home they were living in by reading books on how to do anything in the construction, including plumbing, electrical, and building. This was before the internet. If the problem arose, she would find a solution. She is a member of Immaculate Conception Church in Moran.

She is survived by her husband, Richard; son, Matt and Lisa McNamee, Elk Grove, California; daughters, Corinne and Dave Moody, Moore, Oklahoma; Megan and Neil Owen, Seattle, Washington; and Kelly McNamee, Colby, Kansas; step son, Greg and Patrice Gustafson; Traverse City; brothers, Bill and Emily Bentgen, Cross Junction, VA; Barney and Christy Bentgen, Dexter, Michigan; and a sister, Louanne Frawley, Bakersfield, California and Brevort Lake, Mi; and brother in law, Jack Luepnitz, Brevort Lake; 8 grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a son, Danny McNamee in 1985; sister, Mi mi Luepnitz on June 6, 2017; brother in law, Tom Frawley in 2010, and a step son, Corey Gustafson in 2010, and her parents.

Graveside services will Friday, July 7 at 1pm at Immaculate Conception Cemetery in Moran with Fr. Frank Ricca officiating. A gathering will be held at the Bentgen family cottage on Brevort Lake following the services. Those wishing to remember Patsy may do so by donations to the Shriners Childrens Hospital with envelopes available from Dodson Funeral Home, St. Ignace who assisted the family with arrangements.

“ We are going to miss patsy very much. I sat with her a few weeks ago at our local restaurant and we had a very nice visit. She always asked about my girls. May she Rest In Peace and know we all loved her. Keeping her family in our thoughts.
