“ To the family members of Zelda M. Lackey:

So sorry to have read the obit about your mothers passing. It is never easy for the loss of a loved one.

When things settle down, I was hoping that one of your family members could get in touch with me, concerning the Smith Family history.

I am the grandson of Beulah (Smith) Patton, she was the sister of Heber Smith.

I know of Alma and her family. So the only family I am lacking information on is the Heber Smith family.

Again, I am sorry for the loss of your mother.

“ Dear Jeanne, Janet, and Harold: The last time I saw your mother was approximately three years ago at the Freighters View. At that time she no longer recognized me or my mother, Mavis Wenman and need help with eating. Zelda was a very loving woman and I liked her very much. I use to baby sit the four of you while your Mom and Dad went out on most Saturday nights. I was 12 when I started and Janet was just a baby. I have often wondered where all of you were. I heard a few years ago that Jack (I called him Jackie) had died. I was hoping it wasn't so and would like to know how and when he died. Even at the young age or 6 or 7, he was a big tease. I liked all of you "kids", but had more interaction as Jackie was the oldest and always keeping me on my toes. I am very sorry about your mother's passing. She seem like a wonderful mother. “ Over the past 9 or so years Zelda has become a dear friend. We visited her every Friday and read the Bible to her and talked of God's hope for the future. When she couldn't communicate anymore my friend Barb, taught her to communicate with a yes or no answer using her hands, and we even had to develop one she could use when we girls would get to fiesty - she'd shake her fist at us. But right to our last visit, the Friday before she died, we knew she knew us and was calmer when we sang or prayed with her. She is a real lady that we will miss, but are glad she isn't suffering any more.
